Kyle von Johnson is a Partner in our Phoenix office. Kyle works in the Firm's insurance defense litigation, business litigation, and general counsel practice. He has extensive experience with commercial litigation and transaction work. His litigation practice involves primarily real estate litigation including HOA disputes, landlord tenant law and contract disputes. On the transactional side, Kyle practices around residential purchase agreements/ rental agreements, business agreements, commercial leasing and subleasing, as well as general contract drafting and review.

Prior to joining CHDB, Kyle worked as an associate at Combs Law Group, P.C. handling real estate litigation disputes and transactional work. Kyle is originally from Iowa where he graduated from Drake Law School with Highest Honors. While in Iowa, Kyle practiced at a general practice law firm. His primary areas of practice were contract disputes, estate planning, criminal law, and civil litigation. He also practiced in real estate transactions and probate.

In his free time, Kyle enjoys renaissance fairs, hiking, and spending time with his family.
