Amber Li is an Associate in the firm's Phoenix office, where she focuses her practice on civil litigation, insurance defense, and general counsel matters.

Amber graduated from Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law at Arizona State University. While there, she served on the Moot Court Executive Board and earned CALI Awards in the Innovation Advancement Clinic and Genetics and the Law. During law school, she interned with a Fortune 100 firm's Latin America legal department, a prominent employment litigation law firm, and an intellectual property law firm. She also volunteered at her school's pro bono program, where she deconstructed immigration, probate, and family law matters for underserved communities. During her final year of law school, Amber was a judicial extern at the Circuit Court of Cook County's Mortgage Foreclosure and Mechanical Lien's Chancery Division under the Honorable Marian E. Perkins and attended a local Chicago law school while there.

Before law school, Amber earned undergraduate degrees in Supply Chain Management and Spanish Language and Culture from Arizona State University. She also studied abroad in Barcelona, Spain, earning a certificate in International Business while taking advanced Spanish classes.

Outside the office, Amber enjoys Pilates, volunteering with the Andre House, treasure hunting at HomeGoods and local thrift stores, strolling through the Uptown Farmers Market when the weather cools below 80 degrees, and rooting for the Mariners and Seahawks.

Amber is the first in her family to become an attorney.
