Morgan Slawson is an Associate in the firm's Phoenix office. She previously served as a Summer and Fall Associate with CHDB Law for two years before completing her internship in January 2025. Prior to joining the firm, Morgan gained valuable legal experience interning at the Maricopa County Public Defender's Office.

Morgan earned her Juris Doctor from the Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law at Arizona State University and her Bachelor of Arts in Business Law from ASU's W. P. Carey School of Business, graduating summa cum laude. During her undergraduate studies, she developed strong communication and leadership skills while working with students and families in the W. P. Carey Undergraduate Center and serving with the Maricopa County Public Defender's Office Mitigation Team.

Outside of the office, Morgan enjoys baking sourdough, reading, and traveling. She recently became engaged in Oahu, Hawaii.
