Madison Brunk joins CHDB Law as an Associate Attorney in our Phoenix office. Her practice focuses on homeowners' association law and community association matters. She works closely with community associations on governance matters, covenant enforcement, assessment recovery, and new development formation. Madison also has experience in landlord-tenant disputes, professional liability matters, including real estate errors and omissions claims, and construction law.

Madison earned her Juris Doctor from Mitchell Hamline School of Law in 2023. While in law school, she was actively involved with the Institute to Transform Child Protection and participated in the Child Protection Clinic, where she provided legal assistance to families and represented parents and kinship caregivers in child protection matters. These experiences reinforced her commitment to advocacy and helping clients navigate complex legal challenges.

Before law school, Madison received her Bachelor of Arts in Political Science, with a minor in Psychology, from the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse.

Outside of work, Madison enjoys staying active and spending time outdoors. Whether she's attending a Pilates class, taking a long walk, or playing beach volleyball with friends, she values opportunities to stay connected to her community and maintain a healthy balance between work and life.
